FOREWORD

This Antitrust Evidence Handbook was prepared by a Task Force of the Antitrust Section of the American Bar Association as a reference guide for attorneys involved in antitrust litigation. While antitrust litigation is like other litigation in many ways, it is also unique in other ways. This Handbook is intended to provide practitioners with a quick reference source on evidentiary issues that arise principally, although not exclusively, in antitrust cases. It is intended to supplement rather than replace traditional evidence research tools. It is organized in outline form so topics can be located quickly and easily. It is being published in a format that can be easily carried by counsel to court or depositions. The Antitrust Section expects that anyone involved in antitrust litigation will find the Handbook to be a useful reference tool.

Many members of the Antitrust Section contributed substantially to the Handbook, including the following members of the Task Force: Michael M. Baylson, Jane B. Belford, Edward D. Cavanagh, Mary B. Cranston, George A. Cumming, Jr., Philip E. Cutler, Norman A. Dupont, Daniel A. Edelman, Neal Lehman, James L. Magee, Barry T. McNamara, Ellen M. McNamara, Peter Priest, David L. Ross, William A. Sankbeil, Carl L. Steinhouse, Sarah Vance, Robert C. Wright, and Thomas F. Zych.
